

THEIR VERSION OF IT.

Each Tells the Whole Story in Her Own Way.

But Both Disclose the Plain Unvarnished Truth.

There is No Getting Around Such Facts as These.

WATERBURY CENTER, VT.—This is a small town, but often interesting happenings take place in a small town. This will be found interesting to many.

Mrs. C. G. Town, a well-known resident of this place, tells the following story:

"I was suffering terribly from nervousness," she says, "and I was unable to get on my feet. I was so weak I could not walk across the room without help. The nervous of my eyes were so affected that I feared that I would lose my sight."

"I saw Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy recommended to me. I thought I would try it. I had not taken but one bottle of this wonderful medicine when my eyes were cleared of their dulling and all other pains and aches left me."

"I feel stronger every day, until I am now well and able to do my own work. I cannot do half justice in the praise of this medicine, and I give these facts for the benefit of others who are ailing."

MRS. C. G. TOWN.

Just over the state line in Champlain, N. Y., lives a lady widely known, Mrs. B. Wilson by name, who also tells an interesting story.

"I have been 'seriously afflicted,' she says, 'with rheumatism for over 20 years and I did not think I could ever be cured.'

"I have taken two bottles of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and am now taking the third, and I can truly say that I have not been so well and free from pain for twenty years."

"What induced me to take this remedy was the wonderful cure it wrought in my husband's case."

"I feel it my duty, therefore, to tell the great benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and to advise all who are ailing to try this wonderful medicine."

MRS. B. WILSON.

"I have the most unbounded confidence in the curative powers of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

Take this medicine now if you are not feeling right. If you are weak, nervous, run down in health and strength, if you do not sleep well at night, if you wake mornings tired and unrefreshed, with little or no appetite for breakfast. Take it for headache, backache, constipation, stomach, liver or kidney complaints. It is purely vegetable and harmless. Regulate your bowels, cure chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free in any case, personally or by letter.

SUPPOSE YOU HAVE broken one of your teeth off the root. Figure 1 shows the broken tooth. We first insert a little post into the root, then a solid cap is made to fit the end perfectly (figure 2). An artificial tooth exactly corresponding to the natural tooth (figure 3) is then inserted.

Figure 3—the perfect tooth. This is called crown work and is employed upon decayed or broken teeth. It is made of gold, silver or porcelain. The cost of crown work is $10.00. Crown work, lower, $8.00. Anal. Silver and Plat. $5.00.

MANY PRETTY WEDDINGS.

October as Usual is a Favorite Month for Marriages.

Who the Happy Bridal Couples Are—

Personal Notes of Interest.

Ascension Church was thronged last night by the friends of Miss Mollie Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson, and Mr. Edwin L. Jewell to witness their marriage. The ushers were Messrs. Joseph, Robert and John G. Gibson, brothers of the bride; Wm. Becker, Harry Bayden and C. S. Davis. They preceded the bride, who came in church with her father to the altar, the Rev. Dr. Elliott performed the ceremony. The bride wore a traveling dress of mode cloth trimmed with velvet and silk and a becoming veil of white tulle. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses.

A reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents, the newly married couple receiving the congratulations of many friends. The rooms were attractively decorated with palms and orchids. The bride and groom were assisted by her daughter, the Misses Gibson, welcomed the guests.

An interesting feature of the reception was the christening of the infant daughter of the bride, Miss Scott of Toronto, Canada, whose baptism took place by request of the bride in the drawing room just after their return from the church. The presents were unusually numerous and elegant.

Among those present at the reception were Mrs. and Mr. J. W. Jewell, Miss Blanche Jewell, Misses M. G. and M. J. Calvert, Mrs. and Miss S. S. Calvert, Miss Herbert, Mrs. W. C. Thompson, Col. Wm. Gibson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Gwynne, Miss Kate Gibson, Mr. Robert F. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Little, Capt. Andrew Kelly, Mr. N. Curtis Lammond, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Burdett.

Mrs. and Mr. Jewell took the late train for the west, where the bride will reside at 1333 Wallace place, where the home has been richly furnished as a present from the groom's father and the bride's brothers.

Miss Margaret Brendell and Mr. C. Edw. Hunt were married yesterday morning at the Church of the Reformation, Messrs. Zeigler, Duval, Peris and Sholman, the ushers. The bride wore a tan colored traveling dress and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was a party of intimate friends and a breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Hunt before their departure for their future home in Pittsburgh.

Miss Ida Price and Mr. Clarence Price of Pittsfield, Md., were married yesterday evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. M. Carlisle. The couple are staying in the city for a few days, then will return to their future home in Pittsburgh.

FIGHTING THE LIQUOR MEN.

How the Anti-Liquor League is Carrying on Its Fight.

Tactics That Have Already Proven Successful for Licensees—How It is Proposed to Defeat the League.

There is great activity among the liquor men at present and applications for license during the coming year are being put in shape. There is a considerable uneasiness among the liquor men as also manifest from the frequent visits of the District building and the anxious inquiries they make concerning the position of the temperance people.

All things considered, the war that will be waged against the liquor men during the present license year will be without parallel in the history of the local government. Since the new license law passed there has been a representative of the anti-liquor league at the District building each day.

As soon as an application was filed a committee of the league, together with a list of the signers, located at the District building and the league then commenced a well-planned attack, and the result has been that in a number of cases signers have withdrawn their names from applications. At each meeting of the league there were representatives of the anti-liquor league present, who resembled a court of law. The arguments have been heard on both sides and legal points have been raised. The league has been successful in securing an opinion from the attorney for the District.

It has been stated that the representatives of the anti-liquor league, as soon as an application is filed, will continue their fight by using their influence with the signers to induce them to withdraw their names from the application. This is one of the most potent means of attack and the liquor men are constantly alarmed.

The liquor men on the other hand, hope to equal to the emergency, and this year instead of handing in their applications before the first of November, they will wait until the last day and then hand them in with a rush, hoping thereby to defeat the purpose of the league.

The league, on the other hand, is armed with a large amount of material and it is expected that they will be successful in securing places that, as they claim, should not, under any consideration, be licensed. When these places are licensed, the league will simply ask the Commissioners for continuance of a week and in that way gain time to collect evidence.

A New Wrinkle.

Petty thieves who have had things all their own way for a long time and who never feared arrest, because they were the maximum sentence, find themselves in danger of the penitentiary now. The league has been successful in securing places that, as they claim, should not, under any consideration, be licensed. When these places are licensed, the league will simply ask the Commissioners for continuance of a week and in that way gain time to collect evidence.
